NEWS

FROM THE HORSES MOUTH

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

Our Women's Artistic Gymnastics (WAG) competitive teams are off to a great start, having just completed their first physical testing of the year. Technically, they're improving every day, and both coaches and athletes are excited. All the girls are working incredibly hard to progress, and we're looking forward to an outstanding season ahead!

COMPETITIVE TEAM UPDATES

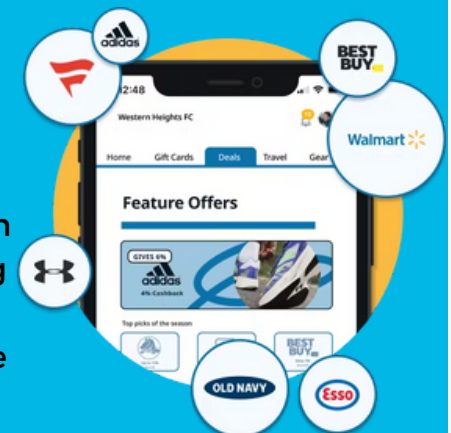

The girls competitive team are working hard towards their first competition in November. They will be hosting another fundraiser this month and all proceeds will go towards costs of their competitive team expenses.

Congratulations and thank you to everyone who donated to the October bottle drive--the team was able to raise $700!!!!

NEW FUNDRAISER: FLIPGIVE

FlipGive is a cashback fundraising app designed to help families lower the cost of youth sports. The platform allows teams to earn money by shopping at participating retailers, making fundraising as simple as making everyday purchases.

Simply go online to the app, and ensure you are using Kemptonville Infinity's link so we get credited, and purchase "gift cards" for participating retailers. Each retailer gives a percentage to us from your purchase.

Towards the end of the season we would like to host a second annual Ninja challenge and would love to know if athletes are interested. More details to come and if anyone would be interested in sponsoring this event to make it fun for all our athletes.

Cheer News

WELCOME TO OUR NEW STAFF!

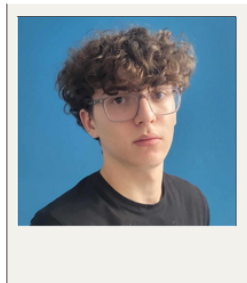

NEW FACES

You may have seen some new faces around the gym and we wanted to have them experience the fun and exciting atmosphere at Kemptonville Infinity. They have accepted the position and will be bringing some new ideas and amazing skills to the gym.

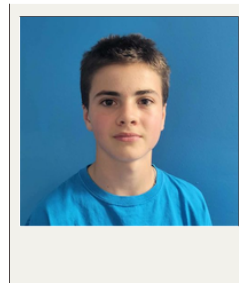

YASIR

began gymnastics at age 7, and by 14 reached the jr national level thanks to his coach, Wajdi Bouallegue. Yasir has always loved the feeling of moving through the air, and over time was inspired to coach by coach Wajdi, to whom he is grateful. Yasir enjoys passing along his knowledge to other students, and seeing them succeed in their own journey.

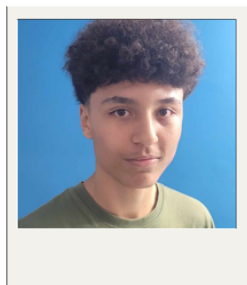

ITAY

is currently in high school and likes to be involved in his community. He chose Kemptonville Infinity as a place to coach to gain experience and share his love for Ninja sport.

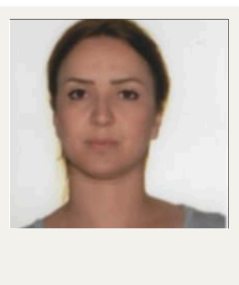

VAUGHN

loves the ninja sport, and wanted to share his knowledge. He has volunteered previously with karate during summer camps. His goal to be a ninja coach is to share his skills with athletes and give them the same feeling of joy that he has.

FARES

joined Kemptonville Infinity to share his knowledge of gymnastics from his experience of competitive gymnastics when he was younger competed in tunisia coached by his dad and grandpa. He is looking forward to take his coaching as far as he can .

NADIA

is a licensed childhood educator and has been coaching gymnastics since 2016, when she earned her first certification in Northern Ireland. She is passionate about coaching and teaching children, and feels it's incredibly rewarding to see them successfully learn new skills.

DID YOU KNOW?

We hope you will enjoy this ongoing feature in our newsletter to provide you with answers to some frequently asked questions.

Stop! Before you take that picture/video.....

Every family has their own rules that work for their family. Not everyone is ok with their child being on social media or in pictures. We kindly ask that parents not take photos or videos of athletes during regular classes and DO NOT POST ON SOCIAL MEDIA as we have some families that have not consented to any media of their children. This is really important to us that we keep our athletes safe and happy. We can arrange a photo opportunity after the class.

Are you ready for Winter?

Old Man Winter will soon be knocking on our door, and we want you to be prepared. Here are some important things to know about our policies:

Our gym families' safety is our utmost concern, and the decision to cancel classes is not made lightly. When we do need to cancel classes, we send out emails as well as post on our facebook page to inform everyone.

Daytime class Cancellation: announced by 7:30 am

Evening classes : announced by 3:00 pm

Kemptville Infinity will do it's best to get this information to you.... please do your part and check whenever you are in doubt.

LOST AND FOUND -

Please remember to check out the lost and found collection located on the window at reception for water bottles, pants, shirts and hair accessories. It will be donated at the end of each semester if it is not labelled.

Need help registering for any of our classes?

Email admin@kemptvilleinfinity.com and Ashley would be happy to help find the right class for you and your child. For the competitive program, please email competitive@kemptvilleinfinity.com.
